SUBJ: Driver Safety Awareness Program

The Driver Safety Awareness Session will be given on the following dates and times:

September 29, 2011 from 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m.

October 6, 2011 from 1:00 pm to 2:00 p.m.

The program will be presented in Good Shepherd Hall, Security Conference room 103.

University policy requires that the operator of any University vehicle possess a La Salle University Operator's Permit. Policy also requires that operators previously certified need to renew their permit every three years. Consequently, new employees and students wishing to operate University vehicles and those employees and students that have been previously certified but whose permit is set to expire, are invited to attend the above referenced sessions. Additional sessions will be scheduled throughout the year on dates that are not yet determined.

Please e-mail Dennis Nast at Nast@Lasalle.edu if you will be attending.

September
is

National Campus Safety Awareness Month*

- Use campus parking lots.
- Travel with others/groups. Be aware of your surroundings.
- Travel in well-lit areas and on main thoroughfares. Avoid driveways & dangerous shortcuts.
- Use shuttles when possible. Approximately 120,000 riders used our shuttle last year. All arrived safely at their destinations.
- Use alcohol moderately. Don't make yourself a more vulnerable and attractive target.
- Report suspicious persons to Security and Police.
- Report unsafe conditions to Security and Police.
- Travel in areas controlled by cameras and areas that are Emergency Phone accessible.
- Report all incidents of crime to Security; even third hand and anonymous reports are important. Such accounts may be the basis for the issuance of Crime Bulletins and Crime Alerts.
- Refrain from wearing flashy and expensive jewelry that may invite undue attention.
- Safeguard your personal items. Lock your dorm doors, do not share room lock combinations, and do not prop open doors.
- Do not leave laptops and other items unattended in classrooms, dining halls and the library.

Self-Directed Online Learning

September 22, 2011

12:30 to 1:30 p.m.

Online in Wimba Classroom

Online learning has forever changed our classroom interactions. Learners are now able to acquire content and collaborate with one another apart from the instructor. Fortunately, we can both empower our students to actively engage in their learning as we adjust to the online classroom. Adding a new role—facilitator—to our toolbox helps make learners more responsible and also leverages our time effectively.

*Followed by an Explorer Café with Dr. Offit
3:00p.m., Holroyd Atrium, Free Food*

Free and Open to the Public
Seating is First Come, First Serve

Dr. Paul A. Offit, Chief of the Division of Infectious Diseases and the Director of the Vaccine Education Center at the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia (CHOP), will be the featured speaker of the Science in Society's Fall 2011 Keynote Lecture. Dr. Offit will address the difficulties in communicating the science of vaccines, specifically the vaccine-autism controversy, to the public.

Following his keynote lecture, Dr. Offit will join us for the Explorer Café at 3:00pm in the Holroyd Atrium where he will respond to additional questions and comments and participate in a deeper discussion of the issues he plans to raise in his lecture.

In addition to his role at CHOP, Dr. Offit is the Maurice R. Hilleman Professor of Vaccinology and a Professor of Pediatrics at the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine. He is a recipient of many awards including the J. Edmund Bradley Prize for Excellence in Pediatrics from the University of Maryland Medical School, the Young Investigator Award in Vaccine Development from the Infectious Disease Society of America, and a Research Career Development Award from the National Institutes of Health. In 2011, Dr. Offit was awarded Humanitarian of the Year from the Biotechnology Industry Organization (BIO).

EmploymentAssistant Professor, English Department
Fall 2012

The English Department at La Salle University seeks to hire a tenured track assistant professor whose field of expertise is rhetoric and composition studies. The standard teaching load is 4-4. Candidates must have Ph.D. (in Rhetoric or in English) in hand no later than Fall 2012. It is also expected that they will have had previous college- or university-level teaching experience. The successful candidate will teach a variety of courses in writing, and may, in his or her second or third year of appointment, take over the direction of the university writing program. Interested applicants should consult the department website for a fuller description of the job and its requirements (<http://www.lasalle.edu/schools/sas/english/>). If they do indeed meet these requirements, they should send a cover letter, a curriculum vitae, and a one-page statement of their teaching philosophy only by surface or air mail to the following:

Kevin J. Harty, Ph.D.
Professor and Chair
Department of English
La Salle University – Box 163
1900 W. Olney Ave.
Philadelphia, PA 19141-1199

No electronic applications will be accepted. All applications must be received no later than October 28, 2011.

AA/EOE

La Salle University is a Roman Catholic university in the tradition of the De La Salle Christian Brothers and welcomes applicants from all backgrounds who can contribute to our unique educational mission. For a complete mission statement, please visit our website at www.lasalle.edu.

EmploymentAssistant Professor, English Department
Fall 2012

Beginning in Fall 2012, the English Department at La Salle seeks an assistant professor to teach writing, general education literature courses, and courses, as needed, in cultural studies and American literature. For this position, we specifically need someone who is a broad-based generalist able to teach college composition, advanced expository writing, professional or creative writing, introductory literature courses, and the occasional course in American or cultural studies when we need back-up faculty in these fields. The standard teaching load is 4-4. Candidates must have Ph.D. in hand at the time of application and at least one year of full-time teaching at the college or university level. Interested applicants should consult the department website for a fuller description of the job and its requirements (<http://www.lasalle.edu/schools/sas/english/>). If they do indeed meet these requirements, they should send a cover letter, a curriculum vitae, and a one-page statement of their teaching philosophy only by surface or air mail to the following:
